The Winter Course of Lectures.

In another column will be the winter course of lectures as arranged by the committee of the T. M. C. A. It is a brilliant array of names, superior in attractiveness in any previous course in this city, and will compare favorably with any list we have seen for this season in the large cities. Most of these lecturers have never appeared before a Titusville audience, and there will consequently be more curiosity to hear them, and a greater novelty in their performances. The committee desire in a great deal of credit for the entertainment they have prepared for our community, as no little difficulty is encountered in securing the services of all of these popular favorites, who are in constant request in all parts of the country. The two first named lecturers gave such eminent satisfaction here on former occasions that they are recalled by general request. We refer to Messrs. Willits and Milburn. There is not one person indeed on the list who has not passed the ordeal of the most elevated criticism successfully, and that is not heralded by the most flattering encomiums and testimonials.

There is nothing sensational or frivolous in this course, but there is no lack of all the best elements to be found in intellectual recreation and rational entertainment. We are to have dramatic readings from the most accomplished elocutionists in this country, and a Concert by first-class artists. Here is enough to amuse and beguile the winter evenings, and do something better, to quicken the intelligence and ameliorate the public taste and principles, by contact with many of the brightest and most cultivated minds of the period. In proportion to the excellence of this course, it will be remembered, is the additional and extra expense charged thereon. But the committee have ventured boldly in extending their invitations, confidently relying upon the generous appreciation and liberal support of the community. They have not mistaken the public temper in this respect. A Titusville audience is critical and fastidious, and demands the best talent, and seldom fails to respond to it with its appreciation. Considering the run of hall, at other times, and the high prices commanded by the distinguished names on the list, the course and the admission ticket have been put at so low a figure as to come within the reach of all persons who interest themselves in such matters.

We have now before us the prospect of a first class course of lectures and entertainments, and of the proceeds or profits of the course, whether small or large, will be devoted by the Association to benevolent and Christian objects and uses.

Shooting Affair in Shamburg.

TWO MEN DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED. Last evening, about eight o'clock, a shooting affair occurred in East Shamburg, in which two men were dangerously wounded. One man, named T. Farrell, was shot in the shoulder, receiving a very severe wound. The other man, whose name we could not learn, further than that he was nicknamed "Slotty," was shot through the left breast, and will probably die. One of the men engaged in the affair was arrested by the citizens, and is now in custody. One or two others are known, and will probably be captured, as information has been given to the proper authorities.

A Heavy Christmas Trade is Anticipated by our Retail Merchants.

The breakers in this neighborhood have had their energies taxed considerably to supply the demand for brick since last Spring.

"LOOKING at the aurora borealis" is the excuse these days of families and young men going now at breakfast for being out late or coming in early.

The race and the wrestling match yesterday at the Driving Park was a fizzle. It did not make as much sensation as a first-class dog fight at the corners.

BALLS and other festive occasions are now in order. Between this and Christmas the late hours of the night and the early hours of the morning are likely to be infringed upon extensively by the votaries of pleasure.

Prof. E. A. Dromite's Recitations last evening drew a moderately sized audience, but gave excellent satisfaction. He is the most effective and versatile elocutionist who has ever read here, and well deserves the popularity he enjoys in his difficult profession.

PERSONAL.—Hon. E. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, was in the city yesterday, on a visit to his son-in-law, Geo. W. O'Leary. Mr. Davis looks capable of vigorous political work for some years to come. The re-election of Judge Kiley to Congress from his district is a matter of special congratulation to Mr. Davis in view of the formidable disaffection as well as opposition in that district.

OBITUARY.—The death of Mrs. Sarah Adams, for two years past a resident of Titusville, occurred at Cleveland on Tuesday evening. The deceased was, for twenty years a missionary in South Africa, and till the period of her death, at the advanced age of seventy years, was energetically devoted to her Christian work—diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. She had a large circle of friends in Titusville, and will be sincerely mourned by all who know her amiable nature and Christian virtues.

RUNAWAY.—Miller Farm has for several months past enjoyed a "stage" excitement equal to that experienced by this city in Pleasantville and Pithole times. Timid females and visitors from abroad hesitate as they look upon the wrangling mass of Jesus about the depot platform, and hesitate before disembarking—while in some instances the din and confusion resembled that of Niagara Falls before the back-driver was lost. Yesterday all this excitement culminated in a scrub race down the Miller hill between two opposition lines, the drivers of which were cheered by the shouts of the passengers, which resulted in one overturned coach, several bruised shins and battered ribs. One passenger said: "That's just my luck! I never told the Captain of a boat to 'fire up' in a race upon the Mississippi, but the biter was sure to bite his own flesh; and just because I ballooned at the horses, this stage!"

It was a narrow escape and the participants have reason to congratulate themselves that the result was not more serious.

Don't forget, the best Chautauque County Butter at New York Meat Market.

A Bogus "Earthquake".

About six minutes after five o'clock yesterday afternoon, a shock of earthquake was felt in all parts of the city. Buildings shook, and many persons were thrown from their seats. The shock was felt in all parts of the city, and in some places caused considerable fright.

The clerks seated on the high stools in the New York and Erie Railroad car, felt the entire building in motion. At the Rogers House it was thought that a locomotive had exploded in the Niagara Falls Railroad depot, and from various parts of the city we learn that the earthquake was distinctly felt. This agitation of the earth may become serious. Buffalo Courier, yesterday.

There was another touch of ground felt here yesterday afternoon at about five minutes before five o'clock. A rumbling noise was followed by a tremor which shook many of the large buildings so palpably that the denizens ran out into the streets. The Noble block sustained considerable damage, and from various parts of the city we learn that the earthquake was distinctly felt. This agitation of the earth may become serious. Buffalo Courier, yesterday.

It seems like strange that newspapers like the Courier and Dispatch cannot distinguish between a genuine explosion from an earthquake. Had they lived in the oil region, and been subjected to both vibrations, they would recognize either one at a moment's notice.

The explosion at Painesville on Tuesday occurred at half past four o'clock. Erie is 80 miles from Painesville, where the explosion was felt at five minutes before five o'clock, and Buffalo is 100 miles from Painesville, it was felt at six minutes after five. There is doubtless an error in the time indicated, for no two reporters ever agreed upon the time of any important occurrence, and such Chatham reports "pumpbooks" as the editors of Buffalo and Erie usually report, are not sufficiently accurate in measuring their time tables as approximately correct, the air wave of the explosion traveled about six miles per minute over the clear expanse of Lake Erie between Erie and Buffalo. The shock was not felt in Titusville, owing to the intervention of the new county line, which cuts off the seven eastern townships, but we received a reliable account of the disaster by telegraph, by which the Buffalo and Erie papers are reached for further particulars.

Adjourned.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Venango County Teachers' Institute will hold its next session in Franklin, on Monday, November 7th, at 1 p. m., continuing five days. The following instructors have been engaged: Hon. B. C. Northrup, Secretary of the Board of Education of Connecticut; Mrs. Anna T. Randall, of the Oswego Training School; and Prof. Charles H. Verrill, Principal of the State Normal School at Mansfield. Evening addresses will be delivered, also, by W. D. J. Galbraith, Esq., of Oil City, S. C. D. Webb, Esq., and J. C. F. of Franklin. It is hoped that all expecting to teach in this county will consider it their duty to avail themselves of this opportunity for their own improvement and for the improvement of their schools. Members of the Institute passing over the Allegheny Valley R. R., or Oil Creek & A. R. R., to the Jamestown & Franklin R. R., in coming to this Institute, having paid full fare, will be returned free.

A SWINDLER BROUGHT TO GRIEF.—About a year ago a young man named Harry Newhouse, representing himself as traveling agent for New York, liquor, establishment, called upon Joseph Stettinheimer of this city and stated that he was out of money and wished to borrow fifty dollars, and would make a draft upon his firm for the amount. Mr. Stettinheimer gave him the money and sent him on his way. He was returned protesting, and Mr. Stettinheimer was informed that the company had no such agent. He was then informed that he had been swindled, and that he had been swindled by a man named Harry Newhouse, who had been swindling him for some time. He was then informed that he had been swindled by a man named Harry Newhouse, who had been swindling him for some time.

PEITHOLE TREMS.—The Irwin well, struck a day or so since upon the Wilkins tract, West Hickory, was reported yesterday as doing fully 250 barrels daily, and promises to be as fine as any yet yet struck in this locality.

A report was in circulation last evening to the effect that a 1,200 barrel well had been struck in the vicinity of Brady's Creek. We would obtain no reliable information pertaining to this matter, but it is said that it is one of the usual "big strikes" generally made about the close of each month in this or equally distant localities.

A new fifty barrel well was struck upon the James M. Gray farm this week, which would seem to indicate that the day for "three hundred barrel wells" has about gone by for this vicinity.

MORE NEW COUNTY.—The people of several townships of Luzerne county have for some time been agitating for annexation to Carbon county, but having met with ill success, have changed their tactics, and now go for a new county, with Hazleton as a county seat. It will be interesting to note the contest in the Legislature. As Titusville will have no peculiar representative at Harrisburg, we felt assured that there would be no new county agitation next session, but we are glad to know our old opponents are to be kept busy. Perhaps it would be just as well for Titusville to join hands with Hazleton in this crusade, and give the anti-county folks a little while, just to keep them awake during the session.

Francis Chapin, of Enfield, Conn., had a very badly damaged by collision with a neighbor's team on the highway, and has sued for $10,000. Not satisfied with that, he has begun a supplementary suit for $30,000, claiming that the driver of the team was drunk, and that the collision was caused by the driver's negligence.

Don't forget, the best Chautauque County Butter at New York Meat Market.
